

Your exciting new career starts here!

Next course starts in Hobart 7 August 2017

Talk to us about whether you are eligible for training subsidies, these can cover 90% of the course cost.

Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing, Home & Community) (CHC33015)

Are you looking for a change, or are you a school leaver seeking an exciting career opportunity? This qualification is uniquely designed for school leavers and adult learners looking to enter employment in the aged and community care sectors.

Info sessions will be held to discuss:

- What you will learn in the course
- Course delivery and duration
- Cost and eligibility for State Government subsidies

All info sessions will be held at HERC Training Rooms, 182 Macquarie Street, Hobart

29th June at 3.00pm

5th July at 3.00pm

13th July at 10 am and 3.00pm

20th July at 10 am and 3.00pm

27th July at 3.00pm

Learn more and register for a session at herc.tas.edu.au or phone (03) 6223 6777

Learn more online at: herc.tas.edu.au
or phone HERC on (03) 6223 6777

HERC is the training division of the Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation

QUALITY EDUCATION FOR THE HEALTH PROFESSIONS

ATO 40736

Course Information

Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing and Home & Community) (CHC33015)

As part of this course you will learn:

- The roles and responsibilities of a Care worker
- To provide personal care and support to people
- To support people maintain their independence
- To carry out activities related to an individualised plan
- To support people living with dementia
- To support family members who become the carer
- The principles of identifying and maintaining a healthy body system
- The key elements of safety in the workplace
- Communication, working with diverse people and work legally and ethically in a residential and community based setting
- Palliative care

Delivery and Course duration

This part-time course will run approx for 19 weeks (Not including a 5 week holiday period).

This includes:

- 4 days a week classroom delivery including simulated training in our SIM lab - 9:00am - 3:00pm.
- One day a week self-directed learning
- Up to 5 weeks full time supervised work placement (minimum 120 hours)

If you have previous work experience and underpinning knowledge in this industry, you may wish to apply for Recognised Prior Learning.

Career outcomes

This qualification is the entry level qualification for workers in the ageing, community and disability sectors.

This course is developed to provide participants with a range of knowledge, and skills to gain employment in residential aged care or home and community care in the role of personal care worker; care assistant, care worker; residential care worker; or home care assistant.

Cost

$3,800 which includes a non-refundable course enrollment fee of $400, payment plans are available. Training subsidies through the Department of State Growth, Tasmania are available for this course – please call to discuss the eligibility criteria.

Qualification outcome

To achieve this qualification, a total of 13 units must be successfully completed, which comprise of 7 core units plus 6 elective units. On successful completion of the qualification students will be awarded the Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing and Home & Community) (CHC33015).

What do I need to undertake the course?

- Be of working age
- Successful completion of Year 10 or equivalent level of study
- Australian Citizen or hold a permanent residency visa

Applicants are required to:

- Attend a mandatory information session
- Complete a short literacy and numeracy activity
- Attend an interview with the HERC educator to determine your interest in working with people who need care and give you the opportunity to discuss the course.

Why study with HERC?

HERC is a leading registered training organisation in the health profession, we offer:

- Fully qualified nurse educators that have experience in an acute and aged care setting.
- Professional service supported by our Student Support Team
- A supportive learning environment that includes a variety of teaching methods
- Fully equipped training rooms, student facilities and practical simulation lab.
- Access to our library, computers and WIFI, during business hours.

Learn more online at: herc.tas.edu.au
or phone HERC on (03) 6223 6777

HERC is the training division of the Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation

